

GIOVANNI MARTINELLI, FAMOUS TENOR COMING

By far the greatest number of out-of-town subscribers ever reserving season tickets for the Artist Concert Series and the opening concert have procured reservations for the 1921-1922 season and the opening concert by Giovanni Martinelli at Woodland Auditorium, Lexington, October 10, promised to be one of the most brilliant events of the entire season. Martinelli's fame has traveled rapidly and the provinces are anxiously awaiting his coming.

Martinelli will be assisted by Kitty Beale, coloratura soprano, also of the Metropolitan Opera Company, on October 19, an engagement of Tootie Ruffo, baritone, Harold Bauer, pianist, and Fritz Kreisler, have been announced for later in the season.

There will be five concerts in the season instead of four, as in previous years, and the increase in the cost of season tickets is very small. Tickets are now on sale at Lexington College of Music. The single ticket sale at Ben Ali Theatre will continue until the evening of the concert.

Iced watermelons is about the best thing to be had these days—since prohibition went into effect.

Germany, no doubt, could give some interesting testimony as to how it feels to be disarmed.
